Utah Geological Society Takes Annual Field Trip Saturday

Annual field trip of the Utah Geological Society is set for Saturday and will extend from Cedar Fort to the Sequirum mountains and south. Prof. Harold J. Bissell is leader of the field trip and editor of the guidebook.

Approximately 100 participants are expected, and the trip is open to persons not members of the society. There is no registration fee, says Prof. Bissell.

Junior AWS

Applications for Junior AWS Council will be available Friday, outside the AWS office in the basement of the Service Center.

The AWS council encourages all freshmen to come to try out.

Band Organized

A new dance band is being organized on campus. Promotion of good entertainment through novel showmanship is the formula Bert Taylor plans to use at engagements.

"Bert Taylor's Band Box" will house the musicians. The specially constructed box will open electrically into a band stand.

Orientation and tryouts are set for Monday, 7:30 p.m., in the east lounge of the Social Hall.

Twelve Inning Thriller...

Dodgers Cop Pennant

By Leo H. Petersen
UPI Sports Editor

CHICAGO — The Dodgers still took care of the Braves and their promise Wednesday was "Now we'll take care of the White Sox."

They planned in here after having defeated Milwaukee 5-2, in 12 innings at Los Angeles last night, to win the National League pennant and their first playoff in three tries.

Manager Walt Alston, who said, "I thought we'd win it all the time," had his world series plans all planned mapped out. "I don't know who the other guy is going to do, but I'm going with my big guys," he said. "That means Roger Craig in the first game Thursday."

Manager Walt Alston, who said, "I thought we'd win it all the time," had his world series plans all planned mapped out. "I don't know who the other guy is going to do, but I'm going with my big guys," he said. "That means Roger Craig in the first game Thursday."

For no other national league team ever before had fought its way back from seventh place to the flag in one brief season's jump. And it was a battle, because as late as the last half of the ninth inning the Dodgers—beaten twice before in playoffs for their flag—again faced failure.

But, after 155 games and nine innings they had squared it with one of those wild and wonderful finishers which were their trademark. They were in Brooklyn. And after 12 innings in which ended a 136-game campaign in ear-splitting jubilation, they had earned the right to face the rested White Sox in the best-of-seven classic opening Thursday at Chicago.

It was—in the final analysis—a gift as well as a hard-won prize.

For there were two out and two on when Carl Furillo crashed an infield single just wide of second base. Felix Mantilla had a base on when Alvin Dark's bases-clearing single, still leaving reliever Bob Rush and the Braves alive.
